GEOFF NORCOTT

in

“Professional Teenager”

Underbelly, 7:45pm

Edinburgh debutant, Geoff Norcott, is on a mission to unravel the murky teenage psyche. In a climate where discrediting teenagers is a media past-time, Geoff, a former teacher, gets behind the most pilloried generation of young people since the punk era. More than just a product of its time, 'Professional Teenager' is the show for anyone who endured turning thirteen.

In the build up to the festival, Geoff's baptism of fire has been previewing his show to audiences of teenagers – ensuring his message has the authentic seal of approval. From bog standard comprehensives to exclusive private schools – Geoff's personal take on youth culture has been enthusiastically embraced and endorsed across the board, by those he seeks to represent.

Since first taking to the stage in 2001, Geoff's abundance of energy combined with a storming mix of impressions, observations, satire and rap have made him a hugely sought after act on both the UK and international comedy circuit. Recent TV appearances include 'My Appalling School Report' (BBC 2) 'Weapons of Mass Distraction' (ITV) & 'The Most Embarrassing Moments of The '80's' (C5).
